

Abs confirms the importance of fabric

Abs Group reinvents the use of fabric in the domain of setting up, enhancing its potentials and possible applications. This company combines fabric with different aluminium profiles, proposing many types of load-bearing structures, which can be backlit and equipped. It is an adequate support to design dynamic commercial and exhibition spaces as well as fairs, which change in time and space according to the need.

